CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION TO RESIDENTIAL APARTMENT (RA) ZONES

100 GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 100.1 The Residential Apartment (RA) zones permit urban residential development and compatible institutional and semi-public buildings.
- 100.2 The RA zones are designed to be mapped in areas identified as moderate or high density residential areas suitable for multi household development and supporting uses.
- 100.3 In addition to the purpose statements of individual chapters, the provisions of the RA zones are intended to:
- (a) Provide for the orderly development and use of land and structures in areas characterized by predominantly moderate to high-density residential uses;
 - (b) Permit flexibility by allowing all types of residential development;
 - (c) Promote stable residential areas while permitting a variety of types of urban residential neighborhoods;
 - (d) Promote a walkable living environment;
 - (e) Allow limited non-residential uses that are compatible with adjoining residential uses;
 - (f) Encourage compatibility between the location of new buildings or construction and the existing neighborhood; and
 - (g) Ensure that buildings and developments around fixed rail stations, transit hubs and streetcar lines are oriented to support active use of public transportation and safety of public spaces.

101 DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

- 101.1 The bulk of structures in the RA zones shall be controlled through the combined requirements of the General Development Standards of this subtitle, the zone-specific Development Standards of this subtitle, and the requirements and standards of Subtitle C.
- 101.2 The development standards are intended to:
- (a) Control the bulk or volume of structures, including height, Floor Area Ratio (FAR), and lot occupancy;
 - (b) Control the location of building bulk in relation to adjacent lots and streets, by regulating rear setbacks, side setbacks, and the relationship of buildings to street lot lines;

- (c) Regulate the mixture of uses; and
- (d) Promote the environmental performance of development.

101.3 Development standards may be varied or waived by the Board of Zoning Adjustment as a variance or, as indicated in this title, as a special exception. Additional zone specific special exception criterion, if applicable, shall be considered and are referenced in this Subtitle.

102 USE PERMISSIONS

102.1 Use permissions for the RA zones are as specified in Subtitle U.

103 PARKING

103.1 Parking requirements for the RA zones are as specified in Subtitle C.

104 PUBLIC EDUCATION, RECREATION OR LIBRARY BUILDINGS AND STRUCTURES

104.1 Public education buildings and structures, public recreation and community center, or public library in the RA zones shall be permitted subject to the conditions of C chapter 16.

- 201.2 In the RA-1 zone, each row dwelling shall have at least eighteen hundred square feet (1,800 sq. ft.) of gross land area exclusive of any land area in the project used as a basis for determining the floor area ratio of multi household buildings. Each row dwelling, however, need not have a site of eighteen hundred square feet (1,800 sq. ft.) and the difference between the site area and the gross land area may be accumulated into common spaces. Land area used to support this floor area ratio of multi household buildings may also be used for common spaces.
- 201.3 Lot area and lot width for residential uses permitted as a special exception shall be as prescribed by the Board of Zoning Adjustment.

202 COURTYARDS
